New CFO takes the reins

Sacramento, CA- Schools Excess Liability Fund is pleased to welcome its new Chief Fiscal Officer, Pat Moody.

Pat joined the SELF staff Dec. 19, bringing 25 years of accounting experience to the position. She spent the last three years as controller for the Association of California Water Agencies and prior to that was controller for KVIE Educational Television.

Gilbert & Associates, Inc., a Sacramento based accounting firm, has been handling the CFO duties for SELF since the position became vacant in June.

Pat earned a bachelor's degree from California State University, Sacramento and later received her CPA.

She said she is excited to be a part of the SELF team and looks forward to working with its board, members and staff.

Pat lives in Elk Grove with her dog, Joy.
